- To promote and provide skill development programs/trainings to the students and faculty members of the visiting institute from the host.
- To promote and provide student internships and placements by the host institution whenever possible.

The specific areas and details of cooperation within the framework of this Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) shall be discussed and agreed upon in writing by the appropriate authority of each Institution, prior to the initiation of any particular program or activity. No binding agreement between the Institutions shall exist unless and until such a formal written agreement is executed.

Financial Implications

- In case of exchange of faculty/students/administrative staff between institutions, the host institution will see to the lodging and fooding expenses.
- Travel of the faculty/students/administrative staff will be seen by the guest institution or by the rule applied by the guest institution.
- In case of joint research projects, Financial arrangements for each specific collaboration will be decided on a case-to-case basis and brought on record in each case after due approval from heads of both the Institutions. Rules specific and as applicable to the funding agency will be applied at the time of the execution of such inter-institution activities.

The Institutions acknowledge that in the absence of any specific agreement to the contrary, all expenses of salary, travel, living and allied costs will be determined at the discretion and be the responsibility of the visitor's home Institution.

All visits of staff and the admission of students will be subject to compliance with entry/visa requirements of the two affiliating institutions involved, and the requirements of the two Institutions.

This MOU is a statement of intention between the institutions in relation to the areas of cooperation set out above. With the exception of the confidentiality obligations set out below, the Institutions do not intend for this to be legally binding.

Whilst this MOU creates no binding obligations on the institutions, the MOU shall become effective from the date of the last signature and remain in force for a period of FIVE (5) years with the understanding that it may be terminated by either Institution at any time by written notice to the other Institution (but the confidentiality obligations shall remain). Withdrawal from this MOU shall not affect any formal binding agreements already in place between the Institutions in relation to a specific program or activity.

The Institutions shall ensure that they keep all discussions and all information received by the other Institution in relation to this MOU or a proposed program or activity confidential, and not disclose the content of the discussions, or any proposed program or activity, to any third party.

Intellectual Property Rights: Rights regarding publications, patents, royalty, ownership of software/design/product developed etc., under the scope of this MOU, shall be decided by the two parties by mutual consent.
