SALESIAN COLLEGE SONADA JOINS HANDS WITH RIMPOCHATEA TO PREVENT GIRLS OF CLOSED TEA GARDENS FROM BEING TRAFFICKED BY SKILL TRAINING.

Today, there are 4 tea gardens in the Darjeeling hills closed down, and a few more on the brink. Gardens are sick and on the verge of closure making young girls of the plantation easy prey for human trafficking.

In a major initiative to prevent girls from closed tea gardens of Darjeeling hills, a premiere educational institution in the hills Salesian College (estd 1938) and legendary leader of organic tea farming and fair trade practices, Rajah Banerjee / Founder / RIMPOCHATEA have joined hands to provide vocational training to turn them to self respecting skilled professionals and grassroots entrepreneurs.

We believe that vocational training is both prevention and a magic wand to equip adolescent girls, especially from closed tea gardens being lured away into the flesh trade with false promises by unscrupulous agents.

Over the past 10 years, Salesian College has been training school dropouts in, house keeping as well as production of food and beverages for the hospitality industry with 100 percent placement at the end of a 3 months course.

Rimpochatea, a world leader in organic and exotic tea and medicinal herb varieties has kindly agreed to donate 40 per cent of all online sales of their products for the month of December 2019 at www.rimpochatea.com

Hence, it is our earnest appeal to all well wishers and supporters of the rehabilitation of trafficked and rescued girls to avail of this unique opportunity to partner in this social initiative in the spirit of Christmas - gift sharing Rimpocha Compendium Box of nine exotic varieties of tea, as well as the 11 stand alones that capture the terroir of Darjeeling.

Bring hope to the hopeless in the true spirit of Christmas.
