CHAPTER

1

PROFILE OF THE COLLEGE

The Year began with the consolation of resuming a normal year after two years of covid-disrupted education and the anxiety related to the return-to-normal for a generation that had passed through stressful years of schooling with its impact on their academic trajectory. The faculty resumed to work with a 10 percent new entrants less than in other years having gone through the process of application, selection and induction alongside training on Objective and Outcome Based Teaching Learning as a starter to renewed commitments to quality performance in the classroom by the faculty.

The management had a continuity in both campuses with only an additional Bursar in Sonada joining the team of Fathers and with the New Deanery of IT and Expansions under the leadership of Mr Dhirodatta Subba who handed over the deanship of Sciences to Mr Subhajit Paul, HoD of Mathematics. The renewed vigor and enthusiasm in the leadership of the vice Principals - Fr Paul in his weekly news reports, Fr Saju in his ELITE Talk and Weekly reviews of the Departmental performances, and Fr Babu Joseph with his multi-tasking in Deanery Monitoring, IGNOU coordination and in Examinations and IQAC. The Registrar Dr Satyen Das saw to the overall office management. The Alumni Office and activities found a revival with the new faculty coordinator in Ms Tanisha Kansal. During the year Mr Patrick Johnson Dean of Commerce and management took a leave for research and in his absence Mr Anirban Ghosh took his place.

The Student Body manifested enthusiasm and vitality in organizing educational, co-curricular and inter college events of academic and sports and cultural nature. The various sectors, under the leadership of the Coordinators and the Associations and Cells saw the campus vibrant throughout the year. The developmental activities were constant through the year with the office administration gathering momentum to finish and bring completion to the building project and the surround.

Overall it has been an extremely eventful and fruitful year, marred only by the back papers that linger in the memory of students that will act probably as additional incentive for relentless war on 'laziness and coziness', on 'mobile freedoms and game relaxations' in order to push their own boundaries to higher performance indices. I take this opportunity to thank all the office collaborators and end on the note that we have taken a giant leap in upgrading our ERP with a contract with IIS for completion of the task in 14 months, and it shall, I am sure make a mark in the life of the institution as an autonomous entity. Congratulations and Thanks for your endearing support and collaborative engagements during the past year(s).

Highlight of the academic session 2022-23

On 31 May 2023, Salesian College was bestowed with the status of an ‘Autonomous College’ by the University Grants Commission. Thus it became the first institution in the neighbouring region to achieve such a status.
